Time Out

Iwaki City Monthly Event & Information Guide

Just north of Iwaki Station lies the former site of Taira Castle. Taira Castle was built in the early Edo Period and fell during the Boshin War. For the first time in 22 years, the site of the castle's inner citadel including the former residence of the Ando family is open to the public.

On April 18, the UIA (Urasenke International Association) and Friendship Iwaki collaboratively hosted an event introducing Japanese culture on the former castle grounds as part of the Fukushima Destination Campaign. Visitors had the opportunity to participate in traditional tea ceremonies, both indoors and outdoors. There were also koto performances and a space to learn origami at the event.

A schedule of future events planned for to be held at the venue can be viewed here: http://tairajyou.com/event.php (Japanese).

If you are yet to visit the site of the inner citadel, there is still plenty of time to do so. The area is open on all weekends and national holidays until June 30, from 10am to 5pm. The entrance is only a short walk north of Iwaki Station. Please be aware that there is no parking at the venue. This is a rare chance to take a peek at the city's local history. Don't miss it!

For inquiries regarding the Taira Castle Inner Citadel Site, please contact the Taira Machinaka Revival Urban Development Planning Promotion Project Team: TEL 0246-21-1111. Website: http://tairajyou.com/ (Japanese). For inquiries regarding Urasenke International Association events, please contact Sachiko Watanabe: TEL 0246-53-4686.

From the Editor

Mother's Day is celebrated at different times of the year depending on the country. In Japan, as is the case in many countries, it is held on the second Sunday of May. If you have a mother in one of these countries, don't forget to call her!

There are lots of festivals going on in Iwaki over Golden Week. You will find some of them listed on page 2. If you have a chance, why not go out and see a few?
